

Ellen Presby | Mediator / Arbitrator

Ellen Presby brings more than four decades of experience in complex civil litigation to her mediation practice. She has represented plaintiffs and defendants in business disputes, products liability, and personal injury matters, appearing on both sides of the docket for companies and individuals alike. Her practice includes the defense of manufacturers and employers as well as the representation of individual plaintiffs, including service in court-appointed leadership roles in nationally significant pharmaceutical and products liability litigation.

She has held leadership positions in coordinated and multi-district federal and state proceedings nationwide and helped negotiate the historic Fen-Phen settlement.

Ellen's experience across commercial and complex tort matters gives her a practical understanding of litigation risk and the factors that drive resolution. Known for her preparation and steady approach, she works collaboratively with counsel and parties to reach thoughtful, durable agreements.

She serves as an Adjunct Professor at SMU Dedman School of Law and is a member of the American Board of Trial Advocates. She has been consistently recognized by Texas Super Lawyers, D Magazine, and Martindale-Hubbell.
